We have a child who uses augmentative communication and his biggest dream is using the telephone. He used to cry every time I answered my cell phone..because he wanted to talk.

You can see his picture at our website..www.turningpointtechnology.com

We started a company and manufacture keyguards....because he and his twin needed one and nobody would make us one.

I know this is all a battle, but ever so slowly the world is changing.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Kloss
